INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY/RELATED DISABILITIES WAIVER

Version 1.0 (7/1/19)
The Intellectual Disability/Related Disabilities Waiver, also known as the ID/RD Waiver, offers services meant to prevent and/or delay institutionalization of the waiver participants. This waiver reflects the State’s commitment in offering viable community options as an alternative to institutional placement.
The South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (SCDHHS) has administrative authority for all waivers including the ID/RD Waiver. Services in this waiver are provided at the local level through county Disabilities and Special Needs (DSN) Boards and qualified private providers mainly through a traditional service delivery system that is PERSON CENTERED and GOAL ORIENTED

Note: The Waiver programs are not intended to pay for 24 hour care or needs.

The South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (SCDHHS) has administrative authority for all waivers including the ID/RD waiver. The South Carolina Department of Disabilities and Special Needs (SCDDSN) performs waiver operations under a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with SCDHHS. Services in this waiver are provided at the local level through county Disabilities and Special Needs (DSN) Boards and private providers mainly through a traditional service delivery system that is person centered and goal oriented.

Please note that the Waiver programs are not intended to pay for 24 hour care or needs.
The ID/RD Waiver serves people who live in the community and meet the Intermediate Care Facility for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID) level of care criteria.
The ID/RD Waiver serves people who meet the Intermediate Care Facility for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID) level of care criteria, but how is it defined?
An intellectual disability is defined as:

A condition in which an individual demonstrates significantly below-average intellectual functioning (a valid IQ of 70 or below), and has concurrent deficits in adaptive functioning in at least two of the following areas:

- communication
- self-care
- home living
- social/interpersonal skills
- use of community resources
- self-direction
- functional academic skills
- work
- leisure
- health and safety

An intellectual disability is defined as:

A condition in which an individual demonstrates significantly below-average intellectual functioning (a valid IQ of 70 or below), and has concurrent deficits in adaptive functioning in at least two areas: communication, self-care, home living, social/interpersonal skills, use of community resources, self-direction, functional academic skills, work, leisure, health and safety.
A related disability is defined as:
Severe, chronic conditions which are found to be closely related to an intellectual disability or which require treatment similar to that required for individuals with an intellectual disability (e.g. cerebral palsy, epilepsy, etc.). Onset of a related disability must be diagnosed before the age of 22.
In order to become enrolled in the ID/RD Waiver, a potential enrollee must meet the following requirements:

- Be allocated a waiver slot.
- Be given the option of receiving services in his/her home and community or in a facility.
- Be Medicaid enrolled or be eligible to receive South Carolina Medicaid.
- Have needs that can be met by the provision of waiver services.
- Meet ICF/IID Level of Care.
Each approved waiver document specifies the services that are available through that waiver, and includes applicable limitations on those services.

The following services may be funded by Medicaid through South Carolina's ID/RD Waiver based on assessed need:

Adult Attendant Care Services

Transitional Waiver Case Management
Typically, WCM shall only be provided to participants who are residing in a community setting. However, as an exception, WCM may also be provided to a participant transitioning to a community setting following an institutional stay (e.g., nursing home, in-patient psychiatric hospital, ICF/IID or PRTF).
A potential enrollee may meet the requirements and other conditions to enroll in the ID/RD Waiver, but a slot may not be available. If that is the case, the applicant will be placed on a waiting list based on the earliest referral date.
A slot has been reserved in the waiver for the applicants who fall in the following categories. These applicants will be given priority and may be enrolled in the ID/RD waiver without being placed on a waiting list:

1. Those discharged from an ICF/IID; the enrollment process must begin within 30 days of discharge.
2. Children in SCDSS custody for whom SCDSS has agreed to sponsor ID/RD Waiver enrollment.
3. Those applicants who reside in or need DDSN-sponsored residential placement in order to receive waiver supports and services.
4. Those participants enrolled in the Community Supports Waiver who have anticipated, long term/ongoing needs that will exceed the individual cost limit of the Community Supports Waiver.
5. When waiver services are needed to prevent serious and imminent harm.
6. Eligible family members of a member of the armed services who maintain a South Carolina residence.
No need to feel overwhelmed. All waiver services, policies and procedures are housed on the SC DDSN website (www.SCDDSN.gov) and can be accessed when needed.
